OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Growing in faith. Growing in community. Welcoming all in Jesus' name.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT
Sunday, March 11, 2018

8:00 & 10:45 AM Services
of Holy Communion

The fourth of the Old Testament promises providing a baptismal lens this Lent is the promise God makes to Moses: those who look on the bronze serpent will live. In today's gospel Jesus says he will be lifted up on the cross like the serpent, so that those who look to him in faith will live. When we receive the sign of the cross in baptism, that cross becomes the sign we can look to in faith, for healing, for restored relationship to God, for hope when we are dying.

Catch the excitement! Witness the joy! Shape the vision!

ST. PAUL'S VISION STATEMENT (adopted 02/25/2018)

- To worship as a diverse community of all ages
- To engage in faith formation as a community grounded in God's word.
- To maintain with depth and integrity the work of feeding the hungry and housing the homeless.
- To nurture a strong foundation of generosity, giving, and caring for creation.
- To provide a music ministry that encompasses congregation and surrounding communities.

A Prayground is available in the right front corner of the sanctuary for toddlers to play and worship in their own way. The space is complete with soft toys and books. Parents are asked to sit near their child(ren). Worship boxes are available for younger children as well as lectionary-based children's pages for readers and non-readers. The nursery, albeit unstaffed, is available for parents wishing to take their children out of worship for a time. Our ushers will be happy to assist you with any of these.

DEDICATIONS

During the weeks of Lent, there are no fresh flowers in the chancel.
A simple dried arrangement accompanies us on our journey through the wilderness of Lent.

SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION

In the principal service of Christian worship, the Holy Spirit gathers people around the means of grace—the saving Word of God and the sacraments. From the table of communion where Jesus Christ comes with forgiveness, life, and salvation, God sends us out to share the good news and to care for those in need.

P Presiding Minister A Assisting Minister L Lector C Congregation

✠ GATHERING ✠

Worship begins with God who takes the initiative and calls us into being. We gather at the Holy Spirit's invitation and assemble as the community of faith on the first day of the week, the day of Christ's resurrection. Upon entering the sanctuary, the people pray silently or engage in quiet meditation allowing the music to focus their attention on God and God's kingdom. The sanctuary doors will be closed as worship begins with the prelude.

CALL TO WORSHIP

- P Steadfast God, you reach out to us in mercy
C even when we rebel against your holy call and prefer to walk in disobedience
P rather than in the way of your divine truth.
C Soften our hearts with the warmth of your love,
P that we may know your Son alive within us,
C redeeming us and raising us up into your eternal presence.

GATHERING HYMN Beneath the Cross of Jesus ELW 338

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the minister begins.

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who brings us out of captivity into freedom, out of the wilderness into the promised land, out of death into life.

G Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P God of mercy,

G you sent Jesus Christ to seek and save the lost. We confess that we have strayed from you and turned aside from your way. We are misled by pride, for we see ourselves pure when we are stained, and great when we are small. We have failed in love, neglected justice, and ignored your truth. Have mercy, O God, and forgive our sin. Return us to paths of righteousness through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

P By water and the Holy Spirit, God gives us a new birth, and through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, + God forgives us all our sins. Almighty God strengthen us in all goodness and keep us in eternal life.

G Amen.

May the grace of God, through Christ our salvation, be with you all.

G And also with you.

P Let us pray.

O God, rich in mercy, by the humiliation of your Son you lifted up this fallen world and rescued us from the hopelessness of death. Lead us into your light, that all our deeds may reflect your love, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

G Amen.

✠ WORD ✠

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

FIRST READING

Numbers 21:4-9

L A reading from Numbers:

⁴From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. ⁵The people spoke against God and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food.” ⁶Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. ⁷The people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD to take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people, ⁸And the LORD said to Moses, “Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live.” ⁹So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

nature children of wrath, like everyone else. ⁴But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us ⁵even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved. With Christ ⁶God raised us up and enthroned us in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus ⁷so that in the ages to come might be shown the immeasurable riches of God’s grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ⁸For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not you own doing; it is the gift of God—⁹not the result of works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

L The word of the Lord.

G Thanks be to God.

*The assembly welcomes the gospel by singing an acclamation.
Please stand and turn to face the procession.*

HOLY GOSPEL

John 3:14-21

P The holy gospel according to John.

G Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said:] ¹⁴“Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son-of-Man be lifted up, ¹⁵that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

¹⁶For God loved the world in this way, that God gave the Son, the only begotten one, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

¹⁷“Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

¹⁸Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. ¹⁹And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. ²⁰For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so their deeds may not be exposed. ²¹But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.”

L The Gospel of the Lord.

G Praise to you, O Christ.

The congregation celebrates the gospel by singing a response.

Remain standing and turn forward as the procession passes.

RESPONSE

shall not to death be hurled but last - ing life re – ceive.”

We have been saved by God's great grace. Our faith in Je - sus

Christ we place; we shall be - hold him face to face!

HYMN OF THE DAY What Wondrous Love Is This ELW 666

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Apostles' Creed

A Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say:

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Our response to each petition:

- A Lord, in your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.
- P Trusting in your covenant of mercy, O God, we lift our prayers to you, through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior.

THE PEACE

- C And also with you.

*The ministers and the people greet one another, saying: Peace be with you.

WHAT IS STEPHEN MINISTRY?

Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2, NRSV

Stephen Ministry is the one-to-one lay caring ministry that takes place in congregations that choose to equip and empower lay caregivers—called Stephen Ministers—to provide high-quality, confidential, Christ-centered care to people who are hurting.

Stephen Ministry multiplies blessings throughout the church and community.

- Congregations receive a practical and powerful way to respond to Christ's commandment: "Love one another as I have loved you" (John 15:12 RSV).
- Pastors have a team of gifted, trained, and committed lay caregivers ready to minister to hurting people.
- Laypeople nurture and use their gifts in meaningful ministry, growing spiritually as they serve others.
- People who are hurting have a compassionate companion—a caring Christian friend who provides emotional and spiritual support.

To learn more about this, our newest ministry, join Gale Paul in the fellowship hall this morning at 9:30 AM, during our Faith Formation hour.

THE WEEKLY EPISTLE
IMPORTANT NEWS FOR THE WEEK OF MARCH 11, 2018

Stewardship News

Year Round Stewardship (YRS) notes that our Music Ministry is especially active this month. We begin with the First State Flute Choir concert this afternoon at 4 and next Saturday's Cecil County Choral Society concert also at 4 o'clock. Then, on Palm Sunday and the Easter Vigil, our Children's Choir and Children's Chimes are leading worship; our Handbell Ensemble will play on Good Friday at 7 PM; and finally all of our choral and percussion choirs will lead worship on Easter morning accompanied by a special brass section. Come and worship with us!

WELCA - Women of the ELCA

All women are invited to a special outing we are hosting in place of our regular April meeting. Please join us on Saturday, April 21 at 8 PM as the Chapel Street Players in Newark present the play "The Memory of Water" (using humor as an antidote to tragedy, this is a story of how three sisters all remember childhood differently). Tickets are $18 for adults and $12 for seniors (age 65 and older). RSVP is firm at April 1 to insure we can sit together as a group. Please let coordinator Linda Grund know by then if you are able to join us! Her contact information is 302-738-5491, lgrund923@gmail.com or see her at church.

Small Group Beginning – "I WILL – Nine Traits of the Outwardly Focused Christian"

WOW – if you attended our recent congregation meeting you know that passions were running high. We were all feeling frustrated that our budgeted income is not meeting our program, salary and maintenance needs. Are you ready to personally do something about that? If so, you are invited to join us for a fun yet empowering class called "I WILL – Nine Traits of the Outwardly Focused Christian". Our time together will be joyous. Each week we will read together a short portion of this book by Thom Rainer, discuss how the subject applies to us personally and to our church, and then explore concrete ways we can make a difference in the life of our church so together we can move forward in a positive direction. This small group will begin meeting on April 15 at 9:30 AM in the Blue Room. Questions – please speak with facilitator Linda Grund at church, lgrund923@gmail.com or 302-738-5491.

Easter Breakfast

On Easter morning, April 1, we will enjoy our Easter Breakfast in-between services (with your help). We are in need of casseroles, muffins, rolls, coffee cake, and fruit, and help with set up and clean up. Please sign up on the EASTER BREAKFAST sheet, which can be found on the table in Fellowship Hall during coffee hour, and let us know what you can provide. Thank you!

Hilltop Highlights

After school activities at the Hilltop Lutheran Neighborhood Center continue to grow. According to Center Youth Services Director, Matt Johnson, the center serves an average of 65 students in its Latchkey program daily. Matt says he and staff are working to grow that number. “(We went) to middle schools and high schools during their lunch periods to promote our programs directly to the pre-teens and teens alike. I believe,” Matt continued, “that if I go to the schools to discuss our programs during their leisure times, it will entice them to come to the center more often. This will allow us to make a larger impact on the teens within our community.”

Epistle Submissions are Due!

Please have your submissions in for the April edition of our newsletter, The Epistle, to stpaulsepistle@gmail.com by Thursday, March 15. Thank you!

OWLS APRIL TRIP – Friday April 27 at 8 PM

Also, before the show, join us for dinner at 5:30 PM at Stanley’s Tavern (2038 Foulk Road Wilmington) for a delicious bite to eat and some extra fellowship time! RSVP is required to coordinator Linda Grund no later than Sunday April 8.
